Principal Message

Greetings Porter Ranch families. Enjoy the long weekend and remember we are off for Presidents Day this Monday. Please have a conversation with your scholars about the uniqueness of our Republic, it's three branches and the importance of honoring our presidents no matter which party they hail from. We had a terrific week last week capped off by our middle school volleyball match. I'll let your student tell you who won that exciting competition. This Thursday we have our Governing School Council meeting at 3:00 in Room 225 and on Friday we have a school tour and Booster meeting. If you know 5th-grade families at another school in the valley encourage them to join us for our school tour. We do an amazing job with our scholars. Enjoy the week and take a look at the attached picture highlighting our art contest winners, MS volleyball math contestants as well as a couple of kindergartners who really lived it up for our 100th-day celebration.

Go Coyotes!
