Principal's Message:

Thank you families and staff for an amazing year. We overcame much and took the school to new heights. I have been incredibly blessed to have worked with such an amazing group. – Best teachers in the district - This past week is a wonderful testament to the power of collaboration and team. Please see pictures below of some of the wonderful memories of this week.

Go Coyotes!

Community Unrest, Justice & Support

We must ask ourselves, "What will happen if we do nothing?"

- Antiracism Resources - books for parents
- New York Times Anti-Racist Reading List
- Anti-Racism for Kids 101: Starting to Talk About Race - books for courageous conversations
- Beyond the Hashtag: How to Take Anti-Racist Action in Your Life, Teen Vogue
- Addressing Race and Trauma in the Classroom: A Resource for Educators - addressing the interplay of race and trauma and its effects on students
- Psychological First Aid - Daily strategies to ensure children are heard and feel protected during these uncertain times.
- Helping Youth after Community Trauma: Tips for Educators - natural disasters, school violence, and can affect students' learning, behavior, and relationships.
- Community Violence: Reactions and Actions in Dangerous Times - help youth keep themselves safe and make positive choices in dangerous times.
- Secondary Traumatic Stress Fact Sheet for Organizations Employing Community Violence Workers - prevent or reduce secondary trauma stress among community violence workers.
- Having 'The Talk': Expert Guidance on Preparing Kids for Police Interactions - A child psychiatrist, a former public defender and a police officer give advice on how and when to have "the talk." While the risk of a police interaction going wrong is higher for black children, it's information that all kids could benefit from knowing.
- Teaching about Race, Racism, and Police Violence - Resources from Teaching Tolerance to help spur discussions around implicit bias and systemic racism, and also empower your students to enact the changes that will create a more just society.
- Teaching about Racism, Violence, Inequality and the Criminal Justice System - An ADL collection of resources on Bias, Race and Injustice.
- Talking to White Kids About Race & Racism - Silence perpetuates racism—but it can be hard to know how to start. This hour-long program is about talking to white kids of all ages about race and racism.
- Your Kids Aren't Too Young to Talk About Race: Resource Roundup - podcasts, booklists, and toys to talk to young children about race.

Long-term Planning:

- Resilience Coping Intervention - a group discussion about what youth have experienced
- Skills for Psychological Recovery - an educational skills building intervention
